次の英文を読んで、あとの問いに答えなさい。

Nello was a young boy <sup>(1)</sup>(            ) lived in a small village near the city of *Antwerp. Nello's mother died when he was only two years old and he went to live with his grandfather. They were very poor but they were very happy together. The grandfather, whose name was Jehan, was a *milkman. Every day he and Nello got fresh milk from the farmers in their little village. They took the milk to Antwerp to sell. Jehan <sup>(2)</sup>(bring) the milk into town in his *cart.

One day on their way home, Jehan and Nello saw a dog <sup>(3)</sup>(lie) in the road. "Is he alive?" they wondered. The dog was very weak, but still alive. They were kind people, so they took the dog home on the milk cart. They made a bed for him in their *hut with *dried grass. They shared their food with him. <sup>(4)</sup>They named him Patrasche. <sup>(5)</sup>They took good (            ) of him.

Day by day, Patrasche became stronger and healthier. He loved Nello and Jehan, and they loved him.

After some time, Patrasche began to pull the milk cart instead of Jehan. Jehan was getting very old. <sup>(6)</sup>It was very difficult for him to pull the cart. Soon he couldn't even walk to Antwerp. So Nello and Patrasche took the milk without him. It was hard work. In winter, it was very cold, and in summer, <sup>(7)</sup>[                            ]. But the dog and the young boy were happy to work together.

Antwerp was a big city. It had a famous *seaport. It was also famous for the great artist, *Rubens. He once lived, painted and died in Antwerp. His paintings were still in the churches there.

Nello liked to visit one of these churches. While the boy was in the church, the dog waited outside. Patrasche wondered what Nello did inside the church. (8) Nello always looked sad when he came out. Each time, he said to Patrasche, “I wish I could see them.”

Patrasche didn't understand what Nello wanted to see.

One day, when Nello wasn't watching, Patrasche followed him into the church. Two large paintings by Rubens were hanging there. They were covered (9) ( ) a cloth. (10) No one could see the paintings beneath the cloth. Nello said to Patrasche, “It costs one silver coin (11) to see these paintings. Only people with money can see them.” Patrasche felt sad because he could not help Nello.

“If I could see those paintings,” Nello said, “I would happily die. But (12) I can't.”

Nello loved art. His *passion for art was (13) his secret. Sometimes he talked to Patrasche about it.

“Grandfather wants me to be a farmer. But when I grow up, I'm going to be an artist. I will paint beautiful pictures every day.”

There was someone else who knew Nello's secret. It was his friend, Alois Cogež. She was the daughter of a rich miller in the village. She, Patrasche and Nello were best friends.

D 次の英文を読んで、あとの問いに答えなさい。

(1) The giraffe is the tallest animal in the world. When it has grown up, it stands over five meters tall. (2) Its head is ( A ) high above the ground ( B ) it can see far across the plain. The giraffe can see a lion, for example, long before (3) it comes near (4) to start an attack.

When a giraffe sees an enemy, it gives a loud warning sound, and all the giraffes in the *herd start (5) ( run ). They are very fast runners, faster than lions. They can run at nearly fifty-five kilometers an hour.

But a very young giraffe can't run <sup>(6)</sup>[ enough / get away / to / fast ] from an <sup>(7)</sup> (attack) lion. When a baby giraffe ( 8 ) behind by a *frightened herd, its mother will stay <sup>(1)</sup> to protect it. She moves the young one to <sup>(9)</sup> a safe place — under her own body, between her front legs. If a lion comes <sup>(10)</sup> close and tries <sup>(11)</sup> to attack, she will kick out with her front legs <sup>(12)</sup> to drive away the lion.

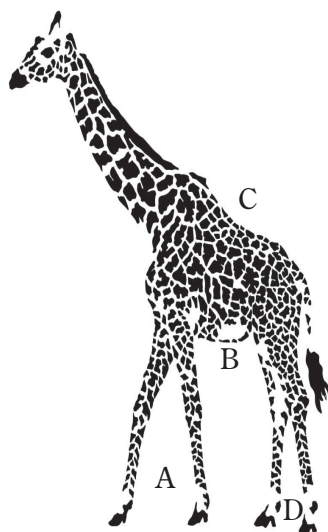

Usually about ten or fifteen giraffes live together. They eat in the early morning and in the evening ( 11 ) it is cooler then. They eat by pulling leaves and blossoms into their mouths ( 12 ) their long *rough tongues. They eat a lot, very fast and without even *chewing.

Giraffes can live for weeks without drinking water. They get enough water from the food they eat. But when they get to a water hole, they drink a lot. They are in great danger while they are drinking. <sup>(13)</sup> To get their heads down to the water, they must spread their front legs wide apart. In <sup>(14)</sup> that position they can't move quickly. So they must look all around very carefully before drinking. As a giraffe drinks, its head moves quickly from side to side to keep a watch out for danger.

*herd 「群れ」 *frightened 「怯えた」 *rough 「ざらざらした」 *chew 「噛む」
