次の英文を読み、以下の問いに答えなさい。

Betty Lancaster was seventy years old. She lived in *Inglewood, California. Her small apartment had nice but inexpensive furniture. Plants and old pictures decorated her walls and tables. One picture was of a handsome young man wearing a suit.

Sometimes, Betty talked to ① the picture. She was sentimental. The young man in the picture was her boyfriend when they were *in their twenties.

In 1934, Betty and her boyfriend, Harding Lewis, *argued. He had proposed to her, and she had *accepted. They had planned a Christmas wedding. Then, Harding said that he wanted Tom Barkly to be his ② “best man.” In American weddings, the man’s best friend stands beside the groom during the ceremony. The bride’s best friend stands beside the bride.

“I want Tom to be my best man,” said Harding. “I never liked Tom,” said Betty. “I don’t want him in our wedding,” she said. Harding became very angry. “You always *insist on having your own way,” he said. “I don’t want to marry such a strong-willed woman.” He told her ③ the wedding was off. He walked away angrily.

A month later, however, Harding ④ regretted his angry words to Betty and ⑤ write her a letter.

Dear Betty,

Please forgive me. I should not have become so angry. If you don’t want Tom to be my best man, it’s OK with me.

I must tell you that Tom is an excellent man, though. He *thinks very highly of you. I will tell him that he cannot be in the wedding.

He will be (⑥), but he will understand. He only wants us to be happy.

I love you. You are the only lady for me. If you want to go ahead with the wedding, please write to me.

Your Fiance,
Harding

Harding mailed the letter at the Lexington Post Office. He was very friendly with the workers there. “Hello, Harding, you look worried,” said Benny Johnson. Harding smiled and said, ⑦ “I’ll be all right in a few days, when I get a response to this letter.”

Harding left the post office. He felt hopeful about a “yes” answer from Betty.

Benny Johnson made a mistake. He put Harding’s letter with his own papers. It just happened. A post office is a busy place.

Of course, Betty never received the letter of *apology. She thought that (⑧).

Benny went home with the letter. He put several things in his closet — the letter among them. The letter to Betty *lay hidden in the closet for many years.

Harding thought that Betty didn’t love him anymore. He married another woman. Harding’s wife died after ten years of marriage. Now he thought about Betty.

Betty never married. She opened a gift shop and lived a quiet life.

In 1975, Benny Johnson died. Workers went to his old house to paint and ready it for sale. They found ⑨ the letter and took it to the post office.

The post office ⑩ send a *representative to Harding’s house to *hand the letter to Harding. When Harding saw the unopened letter, his heart *fluttered. “Maybe Betty is alive and loves me,” he thought. He drove to Inglewood and found out Betty’s new address. He called her on the phone. She was shocked ⑪ to learn about Harding, the letter, and his *persistent love.

On June 3, 1975, Harding Lewis and Betty Lancaster got married. They were both in their (⑫). Love wins again.
