Kazu : How was your host family?

Kimiko : They were great. There are so many differences between Japanese and Australian culture.

Kazu :

Kimiko Well, you need to make your bed in the morning.

Kazu :

Kimiko : Well, I sleep in a bed, but I don't usually make my bed.

Kazu : What else?

Kimiko : I had to make my own breakfast in the morning. My host mother showed me the kitchen and everyone makes their own breakfast.

Kazu : Wow. My mother always makes me miso soup in the morning.

Kimiko : Well, I ate cereal on some days, and toast with jam on others.

Kazu : No, I don't. What is it?

Kimiko : It's a special food in Australia. They put it on toast. I liked it, but some of my friends didn't.

Kazu : That sounds interesting. I want to try it.

Kimiko : Also, we eat dinner together. In Japan, I don't usually eat with my family. My father works late and I go to cram school. In Australia, stores are often closed on Sundays so that families can spend time together.

Kazu : That's great. I am looking forward to my trip to Australia.

Kimiko : I think that you will like it.
